GREAT HOST WILL MOTOR-BOATS THAT CLASH IN INTERNATIONAL RACE TO-DAY WELCOME VICTORS IN WORLD'S GAMES

Parade Will Escort Them From Madison Square to City Hall, Where Big Demonstration Will Be Made.

Plans were agreed upon at a meeting of the Executive Committee having in charge the reception to America's athletes, held last night, which will likely make the home-coming of Uncle Sam's champions the most remarkable celebration ever held in New York City. Five committees, comprising New York's abiest citizens, will begin active work today to make the demonstration historic.

The plans are not yet formulated. They have been placed in the hands of a Committee on Plan and Scope of seven members to be appointed on Monday at noon by Chairman P. J. Conway.

The general idea is to have a great parade starting from Madison square and proceeding down Fifth avenue and Broadway to the City Hall, where a public reception will be held.

A Parade Committee, comprising Col. E. P. Gilgar, Irish Volunteers: Col. W. A. Morris, Ninth Regiment; Major William A. Turpin, Thirteenth Regiment; Major John J. Dixon, Forty-seventh Regiment; Major D. J. Murphy, Twenty-second Regiment; Major Edward Dubois, Twenty-third Regiment, and Capt. P. J. Maguire, Sixty-ninth Regiment. will have in charge the parade, which will include delegations from every athletic club and organization in Greater
